

Julie Bergan, Arigato

I'm a big girl, baby
Now why you acting so shady lately
You don't need to baby sit me
Arigato later dude, gonna find another you, yeah someone new

I'm about to steal a car
On my way to a random bar
I'm all Columbus
Cause he went too far

I'm a big girl, baby
Don't protect me from the big world, baby

Oh, what you trying to protect me from
I'm just tryna' have some fun
But when we wake in the morning
Stuck in a corner
Oh, just tell me why I have to stay
I don't really like to play it safe

I'm a big shot baby
You can't handle my outbursts, you see
Gotta let me go crazy, baby
Arigato, what's the use, everything you got to lose, is me and you

All I wanna do is run
Wanna see who I'll become
I'm not a house wife
Never will be one

I'm a big shot baby
I'm the one who makes the big bucks baby

Oh, what you trying to protect me from
I'm just tryna' have some fun
But when we wake in the morning
Stuck in a corner
Oh, just tell me why I have to stay
I don't really like to play it safe
