

Justin Bieber, Honest (feat. Don Toliver)

Honest (honest)
Your modest
I like it (I like it)
You stay down
And you the baddest (baddest)
Find you in the cut
I copped it (I copped it)

Honest (honest)
You kept it real with me from jump (from jump)
It's 23 when you get dunked on (splash)
I put it in and that's your song (and that's your song)

Off top you the sun in my morning
I tried to get away but its boring
You're my safe haven
I need it all alone
And you my dime piece
And I can't take less than one

You the (whew)
You the one
Trinity you like three in one
Ratio ten to one

You get spicy
I like that cajun on you
On occasion
That's your testimony

I like that hazel on you
I look straight in your eyes
Holy matrimony

Honest (honest)
Your modest
I like it (I like it)
You stay down
And you the baddest (baddest) Find you in the cut
I copped it (copped it)

Honest (honest)
You kept it real with me from jump (from jump)
It's 23 when you get dunked on (splash)
I put it in and that's your song (and that's your song)

Yeah honest
Spicy I like it
Facetime me the weed I just might buy it
Throw it back on the couch I just might try (Ohhhh spicy)
Damn that booty thick
I like it
Hey Justin B
I know you don't do this often
But this here sneak and geek
Fuck that McLaren
Im ridin the jeep
I got in the club with all of my thugs
Im packing that pistol Pete
Better watch your mouth
Gotta pick a side before you jump and leap
I was selling thee nickels and dimes in dubs
But crack in my sock it ain't me
But baby I like it

Imma pull that double R to your crib just for once
It's 23 when you get dunked
Me and JB smokin skunk

Oh honest
Honest (honest)
Your modest
I like it (I like it)
You stay down
And you the baddest (baddest)
Find you in the cut
I copped it (I copped it)

Honest (honest)
You kept it real with me from jump (from jump)
It's 23 when you get dunked on (splash)
I put it in and that's your song (and that's your song) Oh honest
