

Justin Bieber, I'll Be There

Crying up above,
I'm just here to take you away
Don't worry about a thing
I'm just focused on you today

You're laid out
You were raised up in a poor town
Roll up, baby roll up
So hard to leave, but I know I gotta go now
Paris and London (On the top of the world)
Baby we're so down (To my girl!)
Something I wanna say
Yeah, you know I'll be there

I'll be there for you, even though I'm gone
Holding you close babe, close to my heart
/2x

I see my phone ring,
Hope it's you babe
You sent me a picture,
Well I sent one too
I'm just trying to keep this love on track
Babe, I got your heart and I won't give it back
You're laid out
You were raised up in a poor town
Roll up, baby roll up
So hard to leave, but I know I gotta go now
Paris and London (On the top of the world)
Baby we're so down (To my girl!)
Something I wanna say
Yeah, you know I'll be there
I'll be there for you, even though I'm gone
Holding you close babe, close to my heart
/2x

Holding you close to my heart

So I'm laid back in the Maybach
Damn these seats go way back
I was thinking about way back
When we used to say that
I was yours, you were mine
And we fought to pass the time
And I realized,
I realized, that we
Babe, no matter what /2x
Babe, babe, babe
I'll be there for you, even though I'm gone
Holding you close babe, close to my heart
/4x
