

Kamelot, Phantom Divine (Shadow Empire)

I am all you ever wanted
I'm a new dimension
Immortality perfected, phantomized
Expansion of life
Generation of light
Finding every deviation
Just to keep the future alive

Under a phantom divine
Touched by the light
In ambrosial grace
Now I'm lost for the old pantomime
In the shadows of our dreams
A phantom divine

I'm the face of the selected
I'm your chain reaction
I am mortally rejected
I am the empire connecting the mind
And I'll die just to keep you alive

Under a phantom divine
Touched by the light
In ambrosial grace
Now I'm lost for the old pantomime
In the shadows of our dreams
A phantom divine

Under a phantom divine
Touched by the light
In ambrosial grace
Now I'm lost for the old pantomime
In the shadows of our dreams
The phantom divine

There is still hope for you
I am the empire
All that you see is true
I am the empire
There is still hope for us
Under a phantom divine

Under a phantom divine
Touched by the light
In ambrosial grace
Now I'm lost for the old pantomime
Like impulses of our dreams
A phantom divine

Under the phantom divine
Touched by the light
In ambrosial grace
Now I'm lost for the old pantomime
A phantom divine

I am the empire
I am the empire
I am the empire
I am the empire
