

Karma Fields, Tove Lo, Colorblind

the flowers are all dead in my garden nothing grows no life left in the soil no sunshine
standing by your grave
the colors are all gone
the memory of you
opens up the wound

Again /2x
I see your face

these tears are mine so you left me water in my lungs until I can't breathe these tears are mine, they're tryna trap me /2x

Again /2x
I see your face

collecting your mistakes what once ws you and I I was pushing you away you left m world to die
standing by your grave
the memory of you
opens up the wound

Again /2x
I see your face

water in my lungs until I can't breathe
these tears are mine, they're tryna trap me /2x

Again /2x
I see your face
/2x
