

Kelly Clarkson, Close Your Eyes

I dont mind, waiting here,
I know youre coming even though the others laugh I hear
But Im not one to give, we said forever so
Im standing here Im standing here
And I dont mind.
You would never leave me behind
If you break Ill break too
When youre lonely, Ill hold on to you
I see you closer now
But I wont give up now
Im gonna fight, for you tonight
Close your eyes
You might fall. And I might cry
Cover the bruises
I refuse to let this tear apart our lives
Others talk, let them talk
Love isnt easy but its worth it again youre worth again
No I dont mind, I could never leave you behind
If you break Ill break too
When youre lonely, Ill hold on to you
I see you closer now
But I wont give up now
Im gonna fight, for you tonight
Close your eyes
And Im, kissing you
Kiss away those fears you hold on to
And I feel it too
And if you start to fall I promise Ill go with you
No I dont mind, waiting here,
I know youre coming even though the others laugh
I hear but Im not one to give up,
we said forever so Im standing here Im standing here
If you break Ill break too
When youre lonely, Ill hold on to you
I see you closer now
But I wont give up now
Im gonna fight, for you tonight
Close your eyes
Yeah close your eyes
Close your eyes
Close your eyes
