

Kesha, Learn To Let Go

Been a prisoner of the past
Had a bitterness when I looked back
Was telling everyone it's not that bad
Till all my shit hit the fan

I know I'm always like
Telling everybody you don't gotta be a victim
Life ain't always fair
But hell is
Living in a restaurant
Choosing redemption
Your happy ending up to you

I think it's time to practice what I preach
Exorcise the demons inside me
Gotta learn to let it go
