

King, And as for myself

In light of day faced with confusion
(I question confusion)
Attempting to solve - better to tell you how I feel
And as for myself and as for myself
All that I see is you
In light of day I promised myself
(broken a promise)
This should not happen the elation I feel
And as for myself and as for myself
All that I see is you
Something is here - the way that you look
All that I see is you
Something is here - the way that you smile
All that I see is you
Something is here
The way that you smile...
I love you
