

King Arthur, Belong to the Rhythm (ft. Michael Meaco)

Look at me then I know that you understand
That you're running with a different breed
When you take my hand

I belong to the rhythm! Honey, can you keep in time?
You found it out, you've listened
But baby, don't get left behind

(I belong to the rhythm!
I belong to the rhythm!
Baby, don't get left behind)

Groove to this!

You'll know how we've always been
A little strange, a little different
We don't know another way to live
Even if I did, I wouldn't change a bit

Got no time to be someone else
Spend all my time partying just to be myself
Got no time to be someone else
Spend all my time partying just to be myself
