

King Crimson, Dinosaur

Long ago and far away in a different age when i was a dumb young guy fossilized photos of my life then illustrate what an easy prey i must have been

Standing in the sun, idiot savant
something like a monument

I'm a dinosaur, somebody is digging my bones
I'm a dinosaur, somebody is digging my bones

Ignorance has always been something i excel in followed by naivete and pride doesn't take a scientist to see how any clever predator could have a piece of me

Standing in the sun, idiot savant
something like a monument

I'm a dinosaur, somebody is digging my bones
I'm a dinosaur

Oh, when i look back on the past some wonder i'm not yet extinct all the mistakes and bad judgements i made nearly pushed me to the brink it doesn't pay to be too nice it's the one thing i have learned still, i made my fossil bed and now i toss and turn

I'm a dinosaur, somebody is digging my bones
I'm a dinosaur

I'm a dinosaur, somebody is digging my bones
I'm a dinosaur, somebody is digging my bones
