

King, Maan Meri Jaan (Afterlife) - feat. Nick Jonas

Main teri aankho mein udaasi kabhi dekh sakda nai
Tujhe khush main rakhunga soneya
Main tere hotho pe khamoshi kabhi dekh sakda nai
Sari baatein main sununga soneya
Don't let the sun come up if I can't leave with your love
Don't go when the nights still young, I need you here
Meri jaan tune mujhko pagal hai kiya
Mera lagda na jiya
Tere bager

If this is how it starts
Your body in my arms
I knew right through my veins all my way into my heart
Tu maan meri jaan
Main tujhe jaane na dunga
Main tujhko apni aankho mein basake rakhunga
Tu maan meri jaan

You're like a satellite
All of the stars align
Don't want but you and I
From now til the other light
You're like a satellite
All of the stars align
Don't want but you and I
From now til the other light

I move my house through the driest desert just to dry a tear from your eyes
I would say no to the gifts of Heaven if it meant I left you behind
Every touch is a sweet surrender
Every moment with you, a treasure
When we put in, we lift together
I know I count on you forever, ever, ever
Meri baahon me aake tu jana nahi
Esi rabb se main maangu duaa...
Don't let the sun come up if I can't leave with your love
Don't go when the nights still young, I need you here
Meri jaan tune mujhko pagal hai kiya
Mera lagda na jiya
Tere bager

Tu maan meri jaan
Your body in my arms
I knew right through my veins all my way into my heart
Tu maan meri jaan
Main tujhe jaane na dunga
Main tujhko apni aankho mein basake rakhunga
Tu maan meri jaan
