

Kittie, Brackish (live)

She is not scared to die
Best things in life drive her to cry
Crucify then learn

(Take so much away from inside you
Makes no sense, you know he can't guide you
He's your fucking shoulder to lean on
Be strong)
Sit & watch me burn

She's taught to believe, that it be OK
Look at your face
Scarred in dismay
Now times have changed, and so have you
I think I'd rather crucify than learn

I'd like to take you down
And show you deep inside my life
My inner working
To smell & lack of inner pride
To touch upon the surface is not for what it seems
I take away my problems
But only in my dreams

Take so much away from inside you
Makes no sense, you know he can't guide you
He's your fucking shoulder to lean on
Be strong
