Kitty Wells, It\'s All Over (but The Crying)

[Kitty Wells]
You said you loved me and I gave my heart to you
And foolish me I dream of things to come
Like wedding ring a home and some children too
Then she set out to win you and won
It's all over but the crying you didn't have to tell me I knew
It's all over but the crying and if I can start then maybe I'll forget you