

Kodak Black, Needing Something

when the freedom bell ring when they set a nigga free I'm flying like an eagle when they let me off the leash gotta prove everybody wrong lookin' down on me when I'm flying like an eagle the streets where I call home this is where I want to be do I gotta go to jail so I can find a lil peace could you be the one I call on will you answer when you sleep?

could you be the one I call on

I ain't never gonna rap about my soul my heart
I got this money
but it's nothing right now cause I am needin' somethin' I am needin' somethin'
I've been searching for my soul, my heart
I got this money
but it's nothing right now
