

Koffin Kats, Hatred

You can scream all you want but its never gonna help
Your ankles have been shattered, lets see how far you can crawl
Dig the knife in slowly and move it all around
You talked alot of shit now yout tongue is cut from your mouth
You should have seen it coming, I could only take so much
Ill ask you to reflect as youre lying in a pool of blood
Wrap you up in plastic, and put you in the trunk
Drive off in the sunset, your torture has just begun.
