

Krilloan, Emperor Rising

Ten thousand years of holy war
We fly across the land
By dragon's fire people die
Their death is my command

Thunder of the raging night
We'll outpace the morning light
Returning to the dark
With an emperor rising in our hearts

I will fight forever more
Runesword by my side
And now the world's in fear
To destiny we ride

By right, by right, by right
The emperor will rise
And the lords of hell have cast the spell
And the fire is in his eyes

Once again the mighty men are one with the dark
With an emperor rising in their hearts

I will claim my rightful crown
With chaos by my side
I'm the master of the storm
Bringing death to those who lied

By right, by right, by right
The emperor will rise
And the lords of hell have cast the spell
And the fire is in his eyes

By right, by right, by right
The emperor will rise
On the ruby throne he rules alone
And the dragons fill the skies

Let them tremble and flee
When they hear my name
Let's give this age a cause to hate
To fear the white wolf's wrath

By right, by right, by right
The emperor will rise
And the lords of hell have cast the spell
And the fire is in his eyes

By right, by right, by right
The emperor will rise
And the lords of hell have cast the spell
And the fire is in his eyes

By right, by right, by right
The emperor will rise
On the ruby throne he rules alone
And the dragons fill the skies

Stormbringer sings by my side
Claimed the life blood of my bride
But still I'll prevail

I'm the emperor
Of the dragon isle
