

Krist Van D ft. Reminiscence, Feel Me

Feel me as you always feel
Tell me all the things you need
Give me what you wanna give
I'll be so glad

Touch me with the gentle breeze
Whisper that you wanna kiss
Take me to the land of love
I'll stay awake

You can tell me everything you want
I'll be there for calling
Noone knows what you now really want
Won't tell them don't worry

I found in your eyes a real piece of me
Don't let them close, cause I'll disappear
Don't let me go I wanna be with you
To touch the sky, to see the right true blue

Trust me as you want me too
Love me as I used to do
Feel me as much as you can
I'll be so glad

Find love in the piece of me
Truth hurts, you make me believe
Give me all your memories, dreams
We will be free
Baby, just trust me
Feel me, find my love

You can tell me everything you want
I'll be there for calling
Noone knows what you now really want
Won't tell them don't worry

I found in your eyes a real piece of me
Don't let them close, cause I'll disappear
Don't let me go I wanna be with you
To touch the sky, to see the right true blue
