

KYLE, Babies (feat. Alessia Cara)

i am pretty insecure
i know i'm immature
and you change your mood like clothes first you, on off
caught up
on off
come /4x
go
and I was learning ABC's no one taught me how to love you I mess up
you get thing wrong
we're supposed to
we have no clue

and maybe
we're still babies
we don't have to know /2x
and maybe
we're still babies
we got time to grow /2x

I wear my feelings on my sleeves and I consume your energy but you speak a language I don't know no, no, no!
first you, yes no
guess so, for sure, stop go jut low down
and this ain't easy 10203's
no one taught me how to love you we're far from school
don't know the rules
we don't have to
we have no clue

we're still babies
and maybe
we're still babies
we got time to grow /2x
