

Kylie Minogue & Gloria Gaynor, Can't Stop Writin

I don't wanna write another love song
Since all of the love's gone
She's gone away
So maybe... I'll sing something different?
But would you listen to what I say?

Coz it's just no use
I'm making you my thing
If it ain't about you then
I've run out of words to say
Yes?

I just can't stop writing songs about you /3x
Maybe I don't want to /2x

I don't even know what i am thinking
And i am not even drinking
But i am drunk on you
You're the rythm and the gorove
And you're the sweetrst melody
Baby, i just can
T dance unless you
Re dancing
Right next to me

Coz it's jus no use
I am making you my thing
If it ain't about you
Then boy it ain't the same
No!

I just can't stop writing songs about you /3x
Maybe I don't want to /2x
