

Laleh, Mysteries

I remember what we said I believe in better times ahead Theres so much unpredicted

I believed in turning trees how they twist and tingle after light I believed in turning it all around overnight and I do, I do my best not to care that you still make me blush if you dont love me, love, then love me such

I do my best not to care
and if you do love me, love
then love me such

and if you do love me
then love me such

I believe in fairy-tales I believe in so much more ahead I believed in turning times I believe I could be one of them no matter the beginning happy in the end I wont spend a minute no more I wont spend another second less so goodbye long ago bitterness And then I loose all hope and just let go,
No - dont let go all is unpredictable unpredictable

I do my best not to care
that you still make me blush
then love me such do my best not to care
that you still make me blush and if you dont love me love so help me God

No - dont let go all is unpredictable
If you do love me, love, then love me such.
