Laleh, Roses

I will listen in stereo
Im here
Im here
it was longtime ago someone whispered in my ears and Sevy says she knows me I wont stay
I wont stay
and she might know me well but not today, I hope and this time III be brave along the clouds but it takes time to say here you are cause I cant keep the roses no I cant save the roses the roses from before cause I cant save the roses no I cant save the roses the roses from before I cant save the roses the roses from before how you grow you grow on me each day the past I know but the past dont know the smell of your neck this is all you wanted so you better believe it these things dont happen every day so I cant keep the roses no I cant keep the roses the roses from before so I cant save the roses no I cant keep the roses the roses from

I dont have to save the roses from before oh, Im pretty sure Im going to try the roses I dont have to save the rose no I cant keep the roses no I cant keep the roses from before I dont have to save the roses from before.
