

Lauren Jauregui, Expectations

[Verse 1]

I've been there all alone
Wondering where you have been
Ten past three
No club closes at two A.M
I've already been through all those sad scenarios
And it doesn't change your mind
Know it very well that you told me
You'd come home
And it happened every time

[Chorus]

Wish I had no expectations
I wish that I could get into your head
With no confrontation
Really wish we could talk about it instead
All these tears that I've cried while I'm turned to the side
And you're in the same fucking bed
Wish I had no expectations
But I expect, you expect, we expect

[Verse 2]

I don't need to ply
I don't need no play by play
All I need from your side
Is for you to communicate
Oh, respect for my time, respect for my space
Respect for my energy
'Cause I've been waiting here all night for you to want me
And you, have you once thought of me?

[Chorus]

I wish I had no expectations
I really wish I could break through your head
With no confrontation
Really wish we could talk about it instead
All these tears that I've cried while I'm turned to the side
And you're in the same fucking bed
Wish I had no expectations
But I expect, you expect, we expect

[Chorus]

I wish I had no expectations
I really wish I could break through your head
With no confrontation
Really wish we could talk about it instead
All these tears that I've cried while I'm turned to the side
And you're in the same fucking bed
Wish I had no expectations
But I expect, you expect, we expect
