

Lauv, Dishes

Sweet dreams and the best for you
I am done getting stressed for you
I wish my hair up in the shower
But something still remains
A feeling that's so strange
And now i acan't stop

The dishes in the kitchen
The dancing in the rain
The singin in the shower
That's stuck in the drain
A party on the weekend
And everyone is here
But it feels so wired, without you
The dishes in the kitchen
The dancing in the rain
The singin in the shower
That's stuck in the drain
A party on the weekend
And everyone is here
But it feels so wired, without you

I Wonder if the stars align
If it would still be you and me
I wanna say that i am alright
The truth is that i iam so sad
I crashed the car the other night
Inside the strangest dram i had No Wonder what it means

The dishes in the kitchen
The dancing in the rain
The singin in the shower
That's stuck in the drain
A party on the weekend
And everyone is here
But it feels so wired, without you

without you
without you
without you
without you
without you
without you
without you

The dishes in the kitchen
The dancing in the rain
The singin in the shower
That's stuck in the drain
A party on the weekend
And everyone is here
