

Leaves' Eyes, Black Butterfly

Remember the time
Your fate was mine
Coming out of the deep

Rushing through the sea
Past wide plains we flew
A dauntless crew

With pride in our hearts
As viking-like fast
To the golden lady
Ellisiv
The Russian queen
Goddess of dreams
Goddess of dreams

Into this fateful night
Black butterfly, butterfly
We rise in Heaven's spheres up high
Black butterfly, butterfly
Into the cold swart sky
Black butterfly, butterfly
We shall once meet again
Black butterfly, butterfly

Remember the time
Your heart was mine
The warlike Norse king
Has gained his dream
How long his secret love
Had been

One hoard of gold
One heart and soul
By the golden lady
Ellisiv
The Russian queen
Goddess of dreams
The Russian queen

Into this fateful night
Black butterfly, butterfly
We rise in Heaven's spheres up high
Black butterfly, butterfly
Into the cold swart sky
Black butterfly, butterfly
We shall once meet again
Black butterfly, butterfly

The Russian queen
Butterfly, butterfly
Goddess of dreams

This fateful night
We rise
This fateful night (This fateful night)
We rise up high

Into this fateful night
Into the cold swart sky

We shall once meet again
Butterfly, butterfly
