

Lee Roy Parnell, Family Tree

I was a little bit different always ahead of my time
And my daddy said son you&#039;re headed for a life of crime
And my mama tells me I&#039;m the curse of the neighborhood
But I won&#039;t change now even if I thought I could

Well I left my home on the day I was twenty-one
Folks at home refer to me as prodigal son
Small times small change never did agree with me
So I went out on a limb and fell off the family tree

Now I&#039;m making you a promise and you can take it to the witness stand
When I get a chance I&#039;ll see you just as soon as I can
Well do you miss me ma daddy do you still love me
Cause I went out on a limb and fell off of the family tree

Now you won&#039;t believe it but your little boy is havin&#039; fun
And I don&#039;t expect you to forgive all the things I&#039;ve done
But believe me ma I&#039;ve learned a thing or two
I wouldn&#039;t be here now if it wasn&#039;t for my daddy and you

Now I&#039;m making you a promise...

Well do you miss me ma daddy do you still love me
Cause I went out on a limb and fell off of the family tree
Yeah I went out on a limb and fell off of the family tree
