

Leonard Cohen, Moving On

i love your face
i love your hair
your t-shirts and your eveningwear
as for the world
the job, the war
I ditched them all to love you more and now you're gone

now you're gone
as if there ever was a you who broke the heart and made it new who's moving on
who's kidding who
