Lesley Roy, Maps (Irlandia, Eurovision 2021)

I'm gonna let go of the armor Let off the power that i've been lighting Not afraid of the monster Of the nightmares That i've been fighting

Easy to run
Harder to stay
Finding colors in the grey
But i've gotta go on
I fell twice
Now i am twice as strong

I;ve been searchong all the wrong places I;ve been trying to omany faces Only on eway to go This is the way back home

I had to take all of the wrong ways All of the wrong ways As i coundn't see All the signs All the mistakes Pointing one way to gert back to me
