

Lifehouse, Dance

I want to sing until I lose my voice and shout as loud as I can release my soul bring life back to these bones and let me fly away with you to be closer to you is all that I ask to touch the face of whom I love is all I want and I want to dance in freedom I want to lose myself for good I want to burn with passion I want to dance with you all that I have is all that I can give and I'll give nothing less than everything words cannot contain the peace I've found in you and nothing can compare to this hope that I have found
