

Lights Of Euphoria, Vision

Silence...

Quiet and beautiful

Vision a picture of what the future holds

Pure within

Heart and mind

Devotions to one another

Belief is more than needed

Reasons to keep fighting evil

The fire that used to burn

That used to keep me warm

Is gone

Silence is all they need

Visions of better season

Pure inside

Filthy on the outside

Devotions to all around

Believe in yourself and the peace you found

Reasons enough to continue
