

Lil Peep, Belgium

you don't mind and i don't mind at all you act kind, I don't act kind at all I ask myself, why am I talkin' like this ask myself, do you deserve this treatment

I was out in Belgium on tour
that's the day that I convinced myself
I was truly yours
I know that you hear me
I know that you hear me

I know that you're here, girl I am at the door know that you're here, girl Answer the door

you don't mind and i don't mind at all
you act kind, I don't act kind at all
I ask myself, why am I talkin' like this
ask myself, do you deserve this treatment

no one deserves this treatment
no one deserves this treatment
you don't deserves this treatment you don't deserves this

I know that you hear me
I know that you hear me
I know that you hear me
I know that you hear me
I know that you hear me
I know that you hear me

I was out in Belgium on tour
that's the day that I convinced myself
I was truly yours
I know that you hear me
I know that you hear me

you don't mind and i don't mind at all
you act kind, I don't act kind at all
I ask myself, why am I talkin' like this
ask myself, do you deserve this treatment
do you deserve this treatment?
do you deserve this treatment?
deserve this treatment
I know that you hear me

I was on my won for past 2 months I heaven't seen a friend's face in too long on my won that's when I noticed all all thet shit
all that shit that fucked me up you act kind
I don't act kind at all, at all
