

Lil Peep, Cry Alone

cry alone right now
i just did a line of blow right now
I don't wanna cry alone right now kissing on Styrofoam right now

I don't wanna cry alone right now
kissing on Styrofoam right now
I don't wanna die alone right now
i just did a line of blow right now

I don't wanna cry alone right now
kissing on Styrofoam right now
i just did a line of blow right now

I hate everybody in my hometown
I wanna burn my old high school into the ground
I hate everybody in my hometown
tell the rich kids to look at me now

I don't wanna cry alone right now
kissing on Styrofoam right now
I don't wanna die alone right now
i just did a line of blow right now

gonna fly back to my hometown I fell like everybody hate me in my hometown
I hate everybody in my hometown
tell the rich to look at me now

I don't wanna cry alone right now
kissing on Styrofoam right now
I don't wanna die alone right now
i just did a line of blow right now

I hate everybody in my hometown
I wanna burn my old high school into the ground

I really didn't wanna cry alone out loud
I really didn't wanna cry alone out loud
