

Lilian Garcia, Shout

It's two A.M. and you're stuck inside your head again
You're replaying
all of your mistakes
You think you got nothing left to say
But the game just started
You're really on your way now

Everybody's got their eye on the T.V. sometimes
You wish you were anybody else
If you could only see your self, yeah
You'd have something to really shout about

'Cause you got something to shout about, baby (Shout!)
Yeah, something to shout about
When you're gonna shout
Do it good and loud, yeah (Shout!)
You got something to shout about
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
So shout it, shout it out

Remember when, I thought I couldn't make it
You told me then, how to push on through
I got up again
Now I'm back for you
So lets give 'em something to really shout about

'Cause you got something to shout about, baby (Shout!)
Yeah, something to shout about
When you're gonna shout
Do it good and loud, yeah (Shout!)
You got something to shout about
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
So shout it, shout it out

Sh-sh-sh, shout it out

So much wasted on
Unimportant things
You throw away that precious time
Where nothing ever really stops changing

We're driving home, and the traffic isn't budging
You're just about to give up the day
Pick up the phone, I'm on my way
And I'll give you something to really shout about

'Cause you got something to shout about, baby (Shout!)
Yeah, something to shout about
When you're gonna shout
Do it good and loud, yeah (Shout!)
You got something to shout about, baby
You got something to shout, shout shout
When you're gonna shout
Do it good and loud, yeah (Shout!)

Sh-sh-sh, shout about
Hey, yeah, yeah
Shout it out!

You got something
Yeah, you got something
You got something
Sh-sh-sh shout it out
Yeah, yeah

Mmm, yeah
Shout, shout, yeah
