

Lindsey Stirling, Lose You Now (feat. Mako)

I wish i could remember every second we had
I know i tried to count 'em all one by one
One by one
But you don't get 'em back you don't get 'em backtake every memory we've ever had i want to live 'em all one by one
One by one

And i swear that i am not gonna lose you now
I'll keep you in my life somehow
And even when the lights go down, down
I could never lose you now

And even though we're not so close here
Maybe you could pick me up still
Cause i can't stop falling down
I can't stop falling down
And i am not gonna lose you now

And i swear that i am not gonna lose you now
I'll keep you in my life somehow
And even when the lights go down, down
I could never lose you now

And even though we're not so close here
Maybe you could pick me up still
Cause i can't stop falling down
I can't stop falling down
And i am not gonna lose you now
