

Lion Shepherd, Nobody

you know, the truth is I'm done what a shame, he smoke gets sour the bell tolls, maybe it's mine I'll take a walk, I will walk blind

it is my tower
and I won't open the door for you a ray of light might come inside and destroy my world

I don't want to feel
I don't want to feel this cold again
listen to me
why won't you leave without me?
won't you leave without me?
won't you leave without me?

I won't beg you, I'm not that kind for redemption, I will walk blind I've done some things those can't be undone man of the hour, dead, and gone

it is my tower
and I won't open the door for you
a ray of light might
come inside and destroy my world

I don't want to feel
I don't want to feel this cold again
listen to me
why won't you leave without me?
