

Lior, Daniel

Steppin into a doorway in my mind this is where you live it's where you live

I forgot the things that I could find I have not been in here for years

I climb the stairs that hide behind the vines I walk through the over-growth of time

Up to where we sat in clouds of smoke up to when we swam in pools of hope.

And all the while I'm looking for your half-smile something that will show me that you are still around
And all the while I'm looking for your half-smile something that will show me ooh that you still know me yeah well you still know me yeah further on the pavement starts to crack and this is where we fill its where we fill where smoke turns to haze I hesitate and I choose to leave the way I came Outside its overcast and visions hard to find but the memories will be my guide coz even though I know our skins have changed colours that we share, they still remain

And all the while I'm looking for your half-smile
something that will show me that you are still around Yeah all the while I'm looking for your half-smile something that will show me ooh that you still know me
yeah well you still know me yeah

Steppin into a doorway in my mind
this is where you live
