Lita Ford, Aces & Eights

We only take what we need In black and white The city bleeds

Love cuts you down to the bone And walks these streets With the eyes of a hunter

Bad blood flows from The father to the son How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law For sinners and saints Dead man's hand holds Aces & Dead Holds

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing Aces & Dights

We let each other bleed
And watch our bones
Fall in the dust
You can hear the children howl
It's all they see
In the hour of the wolf

Bad blood flows from The father to the son How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law For sinners and saints The dead man's hand holds Aces & Dights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing

Love was the law Sinners and saints Dead man's hand holds Aces & Dead Holds

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing Hey, Aces & Dights

Daytime
Nighttime
Standing in line
At the border
I wanna lay down the law
I wanna tell 'em how it should be

Bad blood flows from
The father to the son
How red the river runs, yeah
Love was the law

Love was the law For sinners and saints The dead man's hand holds Aces & amp; Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing

Love was the law For sinners and saints The dead man's hand holds Aces & Dights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing Aces & Eights

Hey, Aces & Dights Hey, Aces & Dights Hey, Aces & Dights Uw, yeah, Aces & Dights Dights Hey, Aces & Dights Dights
