She said
I never want to hurt you again
I said
i never want to this to come to an end
she said
look at me baby
these tears we run out
i said
i took i you for granted but i can't be without you please can we just say pretty lies

pretty lies
lie to each other again
one last time

slowly let me down
every word pulls me apart Gently tell me how
to forgive me now
cause all I need is on your lips
tell my enemy
they're my remedy
so slowly let me down
give me a kiss just one last time ohh /4x
give me a kiss just one last time
ohh /4x

as we both sit in your car talking about the past as we were facing each other we were falling apart

pretty lies

slowly let me down
so slowly let me down
ohh /4x

nights so long
days longer
it seems no end in sight I lost it all, the 29
that October night

slowly let me down

ohh /4x
