

London Grammar, LondoLondon Grammar

All these lights are changing
See them everywhere

In my veins like lightening
I don't even care

And the crowd is heavy
I don't wanna move
All these colours in me
But all i see is you

And nothing else matters
You
Baby , it's you
You
And nothing else matters
You
Baby , it's you
You
Baby , it's you

All these painted faces
Singign back to me
There's an ocean here
But you are all i see

And nothing else matters
You
Baby , it's you
You
And nothing else matters
You
Baby , it's you
You
Baby , it's you
