

Lovebites, Pledge of the Saviour

Find me, somebody find me...
Will we ever find a way to go back again?
Distant memories

Guarantee, there is no guarantee...
Deep in the darkness of night,
I only can hear my heartbeat

Help me, somebody help me...
I want to vanish from here like a mirage
'cause this pain's too much

We are the ones who built this world, and filled it with many tears
Tell me now, are you all satisfied?

Sign of the knight, don't you pity yourself
I swear my allegiance, I'll never forget it
Save your own soul, there is nobody else
Together we'll rise up and fight till the end
Change the world

Guide me, somebody guide me...
If you are fighting for peace
You must be prepared to make the sacrifice

Certainty, there is no certainty...
But I believe we can find a way to survive somehow

We are the ones who failed this world, and sailed under false colours
Tell me now, was everything a lie?

Die by the sword, never look back again
Don't waste any second, we've only got one chance
Depth of despair, go beyond it yourself
Don't give up our hopes and become the "Saviour"

Sign of the knight, don't you pity yourself
I swear my allegiance, I'll never forget it
Save your own soul, there is nobody else
Together we'll rise up and fight till the end
Change the world
