

Luca Turilli, War Of The Universe

"Cosmic terror of the universe // BEWARE
Mighty enemies of mystic wars // ANGELS CALL
Soon will be born a mortal who will dare
STARS WANT IT FALL

There Between two astral worlds -
Lie dark seeds of eternal war -
Far beyond the silent hole where -
Meteors paint a crystal storm -
Through the eons without space,
Where swallowed is the concept:
Time
Systems burning and colliding
Form the chaos,dark and light

Black holes,
Comets,
Blazing thunders...
Fragments of the divine born

(Chorus):
War of the Universe,
Of cosmic energies,
Of phantoms riding
The genesis of all,
Sons of Universe,
Forever fighting
Through every age
Condemned to face this // HOLY WAR

Parallax of suns create -
Geometry of moons unborn -
Spread the knowledge of the creatures -
Between curious there and not -
Comets' riders -
Astral riders -
Heroes of celestial shores

(Chorus)

Cosmic terror of the universe // BEWARE
Mighty enemies of mystic wars // ANGELS CALL
Soon will be born a mortal who will dare
STARS WANT IT FALL";
