[Interviewer]

What's the deal people?!

It's the Natural Disaster: T-Storm comin' at you with another hip-hop spotlight.

Since the success of being a radio air personality from back in the day and later goin' on to release his independent album,

Ludacris has inspired other radio jocks to persue careers in Hip-Hop.

Meet Rob Quarters, a 62-year-old air personality from WZZZ in Bus County Georgia.

I was granted the opportunity to holla at Mr. Quarters about his upcoming album

And here's what he had to say.

[Rob Quarters]

People keep askin' &quot;Why Rob Quarter, why Rob Quarter, 62-year-old muthafuckin' g?&quot;

Wanna make an album, that's all.

You know, I been, I've been thinking about doin' this shit since, you know, back when I was forty, s

So, here's the first single off my new album &quot;Get Hard, Or Die Tryin'&quot;

Ya'll feel that? Feel that nigga.

It's called &quot;Viagra Has Been Good To Me&quot;

Now feel that fuckin' nigga!

Hey, ya'll holla back at a muthafucker and you know what I'm always sayin nigga:

If you can't earn no muthafuckin' cents, you better beg for the quarter.
