

Luke Hemmings, Place In Me

Hold on
I never meant you any harm
Got no legs to stand on
I was just dancing in the dark
Now with my eyes wide open
It's heaven in your arms

Hold on
I never meant to start a war
I was just dead wrong
I know we've been in this before
Now with my eyes wide open
I tore you right apart

Call me in the morning
I am sorry that i let you down
I am so apathetic
It's pathetic
But i need you now
