

Lunarclick, Good Enough

The world now changing
So now we're moving faster to live
We cannot find
A way to make us strong
So run and hide
We would never find you
We would never be
We're Never
Good enough to be
We will never share
Where they seem to be
Or Good Enough
Try to remove us
But now you're feeling
Bad we're here too
We Can
Not feed the pain
That we were suffering
Now but hide us
Won't you try to hide
Feelings that you're not
We're Never
Good enough to be
We will never share
Where they seem to be
Or Good Enough
Say Goodbye
Say Goodbye
Wish you could lose us
Try to confuse us
Wish you could lose us
You can't remove us
