

MAC MILLER, Self Care

i switched time zone
but what do i kw?
spending night hithciking where will I go?
I could fly home with my eyes closed but it be kinda hard to see that's no surprise though you can find me
I ain't hiding
I don't move my feet when I be gliding I just slide in and then I roll out

I climbing over that wall I remember
yes, I remember
I remember it all swear the hight be too talk so like September I fall down below, no I know that the medicine be on call it's feeling like you hot enough to melt can't trust no one can't even trust yourself and I love you I don't love nobody else tell them they can take that bullshit elsewhere self care, I;m treating me right hel lya,
we're gona be alrigh

been on the road
I don't see it
out on the road
I don't see it
