

MACKLEMORE, GOOD OLD DAYS (FEAT. KES

I wish somebody would have told me that some day these will be the good old days all the love you won't forget
and all these reckless nights you won't regret someday soon, your whole life's gonna change you'll miss the magic of these old days

I was thinking about the band I was thinking about the fans we were underground loaded merch in the 12-passengers van in a small club in Minnesota and the snow outside of 1st Ave I just wanted my name in a star now look at where we at still growing up /2x I'd be laying in my bed and dream about what I'd become couldn't wait to get alder couldn't wait to be someone now that I'm here wishing I was still young those old days

that some day, these will be the good old days

wish I didn't think I had the answer wish I didn't drink all of that glass first wish I made it to homecoming got up the courage to ask her wish I would've gotten out of my shell wish I put the bottle back on that shelf wish I wouldn't have worry about what other people thought and felt comfortable in myself rooftop open and the stars above moment frozen, sneaking out and falling in love me, you and the futon, we'd just begun on the grass, dreaming, figuring out who I was those good old days

never thought we'd get old maybe we're still young may we always look back and think it was better than it was maybe these are the moments maybe I've been missing what it's about been scared of the future thinking about the past while missing out on now

we've come so far
I guess I;m proud
And I ain't worried about the wrinkles around my smile I've got some scars, I've been around I've thrown some pain, I've seen some things, but I'm here now
those good old days

you don't know what you've got till it goes, till it's gone /2x
