Madison Beer, Good in Goodbye

you got blood on your hands how do you plead? boy, it's like treason how you treated me it's eight Mondays in a row nine days of the week these tantrums been old all bitter, no sweet you're killing my vibe in ways, words cannot describe but I'll try, I'll try

You put the "over" in lover, put the "ex" in next Ain't no "l" in trouble, just the "U" since we met Cause you're toxic, boy I ain't even gotta try to find the G.O.O.D. in goodbye

You put the "over" in lover, put the "ex" in next Ain't no "l" in trouble, just the "U" since we met Cause you're toxic, boy I ain't even gotta try to find the G.O.O.D. in goodbye

I would take a bullet for you just to prove my love only to find out you are the one holding the gun I'm just tryna get focused, take some time for me people started to notice all the shit you couldn't see

You put the "over" in lover, put the "ex" in next Ain't no "l" in trouble, just the "U" since we met Cause you're toxic, boy I ain't even gotta try to find the G.O.O.D. in goodbye
