

Mandaryna, Not Perfect

It's me, I know,
I've let you wait so long all lessons learnt I've never been so strong it's funny how they try to bring me down they don't know why I've never lost my crown

it's been a long time,
long time wating
I know that nothing's changed: haters are hating but now it's my time, my new begiings and I did not forget how to keep winning
No one wants to be judged by the past
You are free, like me

you're not perfect and you know it, know
I'm not perfect but I'm still gonna do it /2x

I know that nothing is forever
I'm lucky, cos we're, we're here together whatever you want, you can do it you know me well,
I like to move it, move it
No one wants to be judged by the past
You are free, like me

you're not perfect and you know it, know
I'm not perfect but I'm still gonna do it
