

Margaret, All I Need

Standing on a crowded crossroad
I'm trying to read the signs
It's gonna take some time
For a pull what's that and get this right
Yesterday is just a memory
Today I faded smile
Tomorrow will come with the beautiful drum
I'm playing my part
And I feel there's a ray of hope
In my too weak eyes is calm
Oh yeah, and I know I will find a home
Somewhere in the gray unknown
And you know...

Life is better wheel of fortune
But nothing never comes for free
And I'm taking my name from a lie we gotta believe
I'm all I need
Life is better crazy bus ride
I'm fighting for a see whirlwind
And I'm kicking my way to the driver see
Gotta be strong
I gotta see
Gotta believe
I'm all I need

I'm ready to face the music
And I'm writing my own song
I gotta let go
I'm writing down notes
I'm playing by ear
And I feel there's a ray of hope
In my too weak eyes is calm ohhh
Oh Yea and I know I will find a home
Somewhere in the gray unknown
And you know
And you know

Life is better wheel of fortune
But nothing never comes for free
And I'm taking my name from a lie we gotta believe
I'm all I need
Life is better crazy bus ride
I'm fighting for a see whirlwind
And I'm kicking my way to the driver see
I gotta see
I gotta believe
I'm all I need
I gotta see
I must believe
I'm all I need

And I know I will find a home
Somewhere in the gray unknown
And you know
