

Margaret Berger, Oblivion

Search your heart
Search your soul
You got the power
You got it all
Open your mind, you own it
Don't you be afraid to show it
You got it all
I know you're lost

Is this the love you have been looking for?
Is this the face you have been searching for this time?
Is this the love you have been looking for?
We can take it higher, higher to oblivion

Ooh ooh...
Ooh ooh...
We can take it higher, higher to oblivion

Yeah, you let the river run wild
I can be your shadow in the night
If you hold my hand, you'll be alright
Will you ever let me come inside? (Ah)

Is this the love you have been looking for? (Ah)
Is this the face you have been searching for this time?
Is this the love you have been looking for?
We can take it higher, higher to oblivion

Ooh ooh...
Ooh ooh...

World's been weighin' heavy lately
Don't you let it bring you down
Let your love run wild

Ooh ooh...
(Is this the love, is this the love, is this the love you have been looking for?)
Ooh ooh...
(Is this the love, is this the love, we can take it higher, higher to oblivion)
We can take it higher, higher to oblivion
