

Maria Mena, Monday Morning

Monday morning came too soon
Its entering my forgotten room
Diquised ass the morning sun and I should be under under Im here
Waiting for you
Too come and rescue me
From this awful blue
[Chorus:]
Looks like another day
In another way
Trough another place
To many lonely days
Im not here for sure
Just here for you
You walked trough the door
Cause I said I didnt need you anymore
Anymore
Monday morning
Caught me by surprise
Covering up my weary eyes
Only helpless, not yet torn
Too many tears Ive warn
But Im here
Waiting for you
Too come and rescue me
From this awful blue
[Chorus:]
Looks like another day
In another way
Trough another place
To many lonely days
Im not here for sure
Just here for more
You walked trough the door
Cause I said I didnt need you anymore
But I said a lot of stupid stuff for sure
Theres nothing I want more
This morning
[Chorus:]
Looks like another day
In another way
Trough another place
To many lonely days
Cause Im not here for sure
Just here for more
You walked trough the door
Looks like another day
In another way
Trough another place
To many lonely days
Cause Im not here for sure
Just here for more
